

Trucking HR Canada welcomes new Board members

OTTAWA, ON (July 28, 2025) — Trucking HR Canada (THRC) welcomed two new Board members today: Carla Kaneski, Chief Financial Officer, Arnold Bros. Transport Ltd., and Stephen Newton, Senior Vice President, National Transportation Consultant, Marsh Canada.

Ms. Kaneski brings over thirteen years of experience, demonstrating leadership in operational excellence through automation, cross-functional collaboration, and employee retention strategies. Mr. Newton offers three decades of expertise in the transportation sector, specializing in safety management for large fleets.

“The THRC Board of Directors is integral to shaping and guiding our organization’s strategic direction,” stated Angela Splinter, CEO of Trucking HR Canada. “We look forward to benefitting from the insights and perspectives that Ms. Kaneski and Mr. Newton bring, given their significant experience within the industry.”

The Trucking HR Canada Board of Directors is made up of committed and demonstrated leaders from all corners of trucking and logistics who support the organization’s vision to grow a competitive and sustainable supply chain. Their expertise and insight provide strategic direction, empowering THRC staff to develop and implement programs and projects that ensure industry employers have the skilled workforce needed today and into the future.

Splinter also thanked outgoing Board member John Foss, Vice President of National Accounts, Trailcon Leasing Inc. for his years of service and contributions.
