*February headlines with a state of the sector presentation: Braking Point: A definitive workforce update

THRC announces Jan-Feb 2025 webinar line-up

OTTAWA, ON (January 7, 2025) — Trucking HR Canada (THRC) is offering a wide variety of webinars in 2025 to support HR success in the trucking and logistics sector. View the Q1 Jan-Feb webinar line-up: here

“We know it can be challenging to keep up with regulatory requirements while still keeping on top of strategic business needs and workforce trends,” says Craig Faucette, Chief Programs Officer, Trucking HR Canada. “That’s why THRC is always adding to its line-up of helpful and free webinars to ensure our sector is equipped to meet the tireless demands of today’s competitive, fast-paced, deadline-driven business environment.”

Headlining the list of webinars offered in February is Braking point: A definitive workforce update, which provides in-depth analysis on the critical issues shaping the trucking and logistics labour force. This state of the sector presentation delves into the workforce challenges shaping the industry’s future. The session features THRC’s CEO Angela Splinter, Chief Economist Barbara Kirby and Chief Programs Officer Craig Faucette.

Other scheduled webinars address compliance with federal regulations and reporting, Temporary Foreign Workers, Workplace Harassment and Violence Prevention. Watch for more webinar announcements including: Get ready to file progress reports for Legislated Employment Equity Program (LEEP) and Accessible Canada Act (ACA) and more.
